"Maritime Affairs"

A new and timely bulletin entitled "Maritime Affairs" is now being published regularly by a group of American shipping lines serving essential foreign trade routes. It is devoted to the cause of a strong merchant marine and contains facts and information about U. S. maritime activities.

There has been a great need for a publication of this character. We have the dubious distinction of being a major maritime nation without realizing it. The United States has thousands of miles of coast line. It also has millions of square miles in the interior far removed from harbors and shipping. The nearest many of us have come to shipping is the folk-lore of "prairie schooners"—those lumbering covered wagons of the pioneers. Actually, few American industries affect our lives and businesses in as many important ways as shipping.

Since the war every third bushel of wheat of American farmers has been shipped overseas. About half the cotton and more than a quarter of tobacco, dried peas, peanut oil and tons of supplies were carried to Korea by ship. However, in spite of the fact that the American merchant marine has rung up a magnificent performance in recent years, the shipping industry is faced with a critical obsolescence problem. The vast majority of ships will require replacement between 1962 and 1966. Yet today not one ocean-going passenger or cargo ship is being built in American ship yards for private ownership.

This situation is due primarily to a lack of awareness of the importance of regular and dependable shipping service to overseas points. The publication Maritime Affairs is designed to help meet this problem. In the final analysis our country cannot have a strong merchant marine unless the shipping industry has public understanding and support.

Letters To The Editor

Oct. 6, 1953.

Dear Bob:

Nearly every day, it seems, one can pick up the newspaper and read the tragic account of youngsters being smothered in old ice boxes and refrigerators. Just this morning, again two little girls were found unconscious in one, after being missed for an hour. One little girl was lucky, as she recovered, the other little girl was not so lucky.

These reports have been coming in from all corners of the United States, and even from Mexico, where I believe five were found huddled together in one big old refrigerator. Each time I read of these unexplained accidents, I shudder—it could happen to my own children, or my neighbors.

It is only natural for little children to want to play "hide and seek," or play "house," and the first thing they look for is some place to hide where no one will find them, or a place they can call their "own house." And what could be better when their young eyes spy one of these innocent looking death traps in your back yard, or your neighbor's yard.

Let's not let anything like this happen in Grayling, or anywhere if we can help it. I would like to see the Grayling City Council pass a law, making it illegal to have one of these old refrigerators intact in one's possession, punishable by heavy fine. If you have traded in your old ice box, or bought a new one, and have the old one in your back yard, please, as you read this, go out and remove the doors from it, or at least remove the entire lock mechanism from all doors. Do it now, before it's too late. Surely, you wouldn't want to find your own children, or your neighbor's children dead in such a place.

I also appeal to all men who do refrigeration service and take these old boxes in on trade. Please make them safe. You may also know where old boxes are located. You would be doing a great service, when you call on these people, to ask them to remove the doors, or locks. Better still, do it for them, with their permission. It would only take you a minute, and it may save the lives of our children.

Very truly yours,
An interested citizen,
— Les Hunter.

NEW DEER LAW ACCEPTED

People are funny! Following the end of last year's deer season and that widely discussed 8-day any-deer period many communities in the north were openly against any repetition of a regulation permitting the shooting of does or fawns over a widespread area of Michigan. If the Conservation Department offered any such special season in 1953 "there'd be fireworks." Reports that the deer had "almost disappeared" were commonplace.

A few days ago the Conservation Commission met to set the new 1953 deer regulations. The public was invited. It was well-publicized in advance. A mere handful of people attended, and when the Commission set a one-day any-deer season there was no murmur of protest. The promised "fireworks" fizzled. Tempers of the fire communities had cooled, probably because folks were still seeing quite a few deer cavorting about the premises.

Deer Health Improved

Partly as a result of the reduced herd which went into the 1952-53 winter, and partly because the winter was mild, the health of the Michigan white-tail deer is definitely on the upgrade, according to research game biologists. More multiple births have been recorded in areas where starvation had held down this normal expectancy, and the general appearance of the deer indicated adequate food supply.

Reason for "Any-Deer" Law
Following this report some may ask, "Well, if the job has been done in cutting down the herd why must we have another any-deer hunting season?" And game men answer, "Nature will quickly undo all the good done by last year's thinning. We can't take to the point where the population of the herd will again exceed the available food supply. Harvesting of buck deer will not control the population at this point. Hence the need for a brief harvest of the herd as a whole."

Open Area Greatly Reduced

With shooting permitted one day only above Highway M-55 the area as compared to last year is cut down about one-third. To this writer the regulation looks safe and sane, and all concerned will watch and weigh results, come December 1st.

Apology

In a recent article highlighting the Sleeping Bear Sand Dunes we cited Glen Arbor as the originating point of the dune rides. To the folks at Glen Haven where the Dunebikes were born and raised this was a little bit of a misstatement, and we humbly apologize for the error. However, Glen Arbor's a nice town, too!

Most-liked low-priced car

... among people who want more for their money when they buy . . . and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

Of course, Ford owners will discover that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars

...more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its huiltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

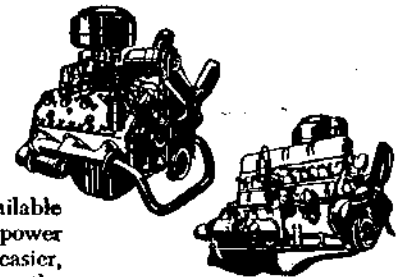

Ford's the only low-priced car which offers you a choice of a completely automatic transmission (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Conventional Drive. And Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, is the last word in power steering . . . makes turning up to 75% easier, yet retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.

See . . . Value Check . . . Test Drive the Ford of your choice at your Ford Dealer's. Find out why Ford is America's "Worth More" car.

Vast Rail Improvement Program Aids Farms on New York Central

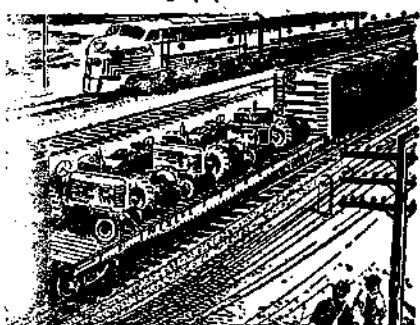

1. BUMPER CROP OF BOXCARS! Nearly 19,000 new cars have joined New York Central's great grain-carrying fleet since 1945. That 83-million-dollar investment assures prompt movement of crops from farm to market. And it's just one way that Central's program of progress benefits farmers.

3. ALWAYS LOOKING AHEAD. New York Central's Agricultural Department actively supports the 4-H Clubs. Also, it constantly seeks better ways to transport food. Ideas like the new, adjustable-deck livestock cars and super-low-temperature refrigerated cars now rolling on the Water Level Route.

2. OPEN DOOR TO WORLD MARKETS. Central tracks link the farms of 11 states with the great ports handling 85% of U.S. Atlantic trade. And in recent years, New York Central has invested millions to improve its shipside facilities that include up-to-the-minute food-handling equipment.

4. IT'S A TWO-WAY JOB. In any weather, the year around, Central's great new locomotive fleet not only hauls food to market, it also speeds supplies and equipment to the farms. And it does both at an average of only 1 1/4¢ per ton per mile. For dependable, low-cost transportation is always the CENTRAL IDEAL.

Seems You Ought to Know Him!

You see a man in a beautiful new Cadillac—and, almost instinctively, you take a second look.

Your judgment tells you that those who drive Cadillacs are likely to be people of importance—and are very probably in the public eye.

It is small wonder that you feel this way about people who own and drive these distinguished cars.

For more than half a century, Cadillac has been a favorite car of the leading people in every community across the land. For Cadillac is the only car in America whose name has consistently been reserved for the finest cars it is practical to produce.

People who want the finest have learned to come to Cadillac—as the tide goes with the moon!

Of course, you don't have to be a prominent person in order to find a reason for moving up to Cadillac.

There is every practical reason for owning a Cadillac—as well as every personal one.

Under normal driving conditions, the Cadillac car will run a full day on a single tankful of gasoline.

The lowest priced Cadillac costs less than twenty-two models of other makes of American-built cars.

And a Cadillac, according to an authoritative study of national used car prices, will return a greater share of its owner's investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land.

So whether you are prominent, or whether you are practical—Cadillac is your perfect choice!

Better come in and see us. Cadillac was never so fine and beautiful as it is today—and it was never more practical to own and enjoy.

We're at your service—any time you wish to call!

New Addition Under Way At Free Methodist Church

The basement walls have now been completed for the Sunday School addition at the local Free Methodist Church. Construction of the addition to the sanctuary has begun. It is the hope of the building committee that the new addition will be ready for use by November 15.

Funds for the building have come in well during the past six months, but there is still need of financial assistance. The committee is hoping that soon after completion of the project it will be debt free, so that the church may serve the community as it should. Come by and see how the work is progressing.

Modern Art Takes a Licking!

Did you know we had a real artist in town? Yes sir! Handy Jackson was a contributor to the Sculpture Exhibition at the Centerville Fair last week.

His work was streaky pink and curved all around—sort of streamlined. Caused quite a stir. Nobody was sure what it was supposed to represent, but some liked it and thought it was good art. Handy gave me the lowdown:

"Why, it was nothing but a piece of cattle salt our cows have been lickin' at for months. I just had it mounted. Fooled a lot of folks—one fellow even wanted to buy it!"

From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts"—especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing—say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other!

Remember this important fact. The more you bring your car here for proper service, the less you'll have to bring it to the shop for repairs. Our automotive products are the tops, our attendants quick, courteous and thorough. You'll like our service. Try it today.

Check the used car, sure! But check the dealer, too!

(and Truck)

Is he in business "to stay?"

When you buy a used car from a Ford Dealer, you're dealing with an established businessman who has a large investment and his good name at stake. We're here today, and we'll be here tomorrow!

Does he really know cars?

Ford Dealers are in the service business, too; work with cars day in and day out. We know how to spot trouble fast. And, our expert Ford mechanics have the equipment and "know-how" to handle any service job.

Are his prices really fair?

Ford Dealers handle used cars and trucks as a service to customers who trade them for new ones. We get a lot of trade-ins. And we keep these used cars moving to free our working capital. That's one reason why we offer our used cars and trucks at rock-bottom prices.

Is he interested in you?

Remember—we Ford Dealers want to keep your good will because someday we hope to sell you a new car, or another used car, and we want your service business. It's just plain good business for us to play square with you.

Do his cars meet A-1 standards?

When you go to a Ford Dealer's and see the A-1 label on a car, you know it has met with the dealer's A-1 standards. And because you can trust the man you bought it from, you can trust the car.

IT'S WHERE YOU BUY IT THAT COUNTS!

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the lovely gifts and congratulatory cards given to us at this time of our Golden Wedding anniversary. We are truly thankful for so many good friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter.

We've just removed the tissue paper from these new-for-Fall Lee Hats!

The lid's off—the wrappings are off—and we're proud to announce that these new LEE Hats have exceeded our fondest hopes! The imported furs have a luxurious softness; the colorings are rich and subdued; the new "years-ahead" LEE features like Du Pont water-repellent treatment all add up to make a LEE the hat to see (and wear!) this season.
